Overview of the event:

In India, we are seeing a new trend. People prefer home cooked food as compared to ordering food online. Home chefs and home bakers are in high demand these days. People want their daily breads and party cakes to be done by some home bakers only. Home baking has now become a new profession, where lot of people are trying their skill in this field. By seeing the trend, Metas Adventist College, Surat, has organized this workshop for those girls who love baking.

The workshop commenced with Ms. Surabhi Sugathan, Asst. Prof, Management Dept, introducing and welcoming the guest speaker of the event, Ms. Shreya Sharma. Ms. Shreya started the session with explanation of recipe of basic chocolate sponge cake, ingredients used and care to be taken while baking the cake. She practically demonstrated the preparation of the cake. She then gave different ideas of cake decoration with practical demonstration. She answered the queries and doubts asked by the participants during the workshop. The students got an insight in the intricacies of cake baking and decoration. The session ended with vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Miti Dhupia, Asst Prof., Commerce Dept.

Uncertainty Avoidance Index (UAI)
Relates to how various countries attempt to adapt to change.
Countries that attempt to avoid uncertainty prefer formal rules and rituals, strong religious convictions.
High UAI means high value on conformity, and little tolerance for outsiders - untrustworthy
Low UAI value risk taking and are less rule oriented. Tolerant to outsiders and their opinions - easy to do business here
