5.4.1 - There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services

DECLARATION ON ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

This is to declare that Metas Adventist College, Surat does not currently have a formally registered Alumni Association.

However, the institution has maintained informal engagement with its alumni under the aegis of "Metas Alumni Connect." Through this platform, alumni have, in the past, contributed to the institution by interacting with students, sharing professional experiences, and extending support in areas such as mentoring, career guidance, internships, industrial visits, and placement opportunities.

Due to the unprecedented circumstances arising from the COVID-19 pandemic, no alumni meetings or related activities could be conducted during the academic year 2020–2021.

The institution acknowledges the importance of alumni engagement and intends to take necessary
